triangle: the way a figure faces

Mass with a deacon and subdeacon. The servers are the same as at a sung Mass, but much of what the MC and thurifer hand to the priest goes through the deacon. FSSP Omaha's Solemn Mass sheets have no servers' Confiteor before Communion.

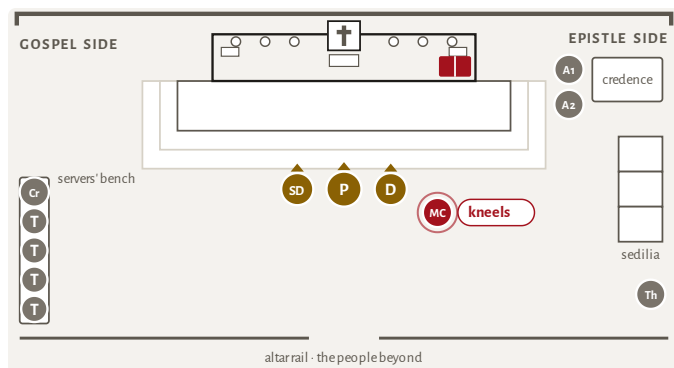

BEFORE MASS

1 The procession arrives

You stand behind the deacon, to his right.

1. Walk in front of the subdeacon. The order is: thurifer; second acolyte, crucifer and first acolyte abreast; torchbearers; you; subdeacon; deacon; the priest. When the priest wears a cope, the subdeacon, priest and deacon walk abreast behind you.
2. At the altar take the birettas from the deacon and subdeacon. Put the two the deacon gives you (his and the priest's) on the seat of the sedilia nearer the altar, and the subdeacon's further away.
3. Come back to your place, signal the genuflection, and signal all to kneel.

PRAYERS AT THE FOOT OF THE ALTAR

2 The prayers at the foot of the altar

You kneel behind the deacon, to his right.

1. When the ministers have vested, go to the altar, signal the genuflection, and signal all the servers to kneel.
2. Kneel behind the deacon at his right and answer the prayers with the deacon and subdeacon, in a low voice.
3. At the end signal the servers to stand, and go to the thurifer at the Epistle side.

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

3 Incense is put in for the altar

You stand on the step at the thurifer's left.

1. When the ministers go up to the altar, go to the Epistle side. Take the boat from the thurifer, who is at your right, and open it.
2. Bow low to the priest when he turns toward you, and go up with the thurifer.
3. Hand the open boat to the deacon, the spoon handle toward him. The priest puts in incense and blesses it.
4. When the thurifer has given the thurible to the deacon, take the boat back from the deacon and give it to the thurifer.

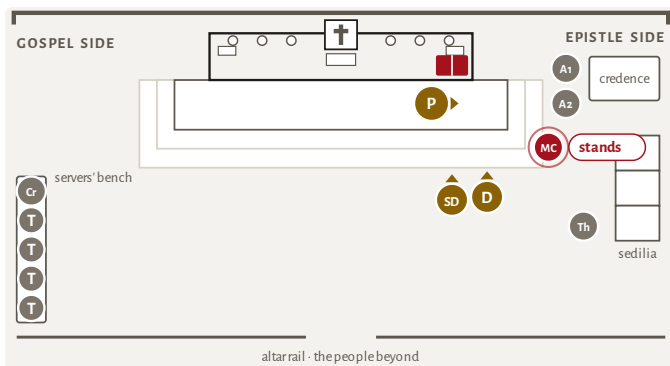

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

4 The altar is incensed

You stand on the floor at the Epistle side, holding the missal.

1. Take the missal off the altar and go down the Epistle side with it. Stand on the floor until the priest has incensed that end.
2. When he has genuflected in the middle after incensing the Epistle side, put the missal back and go back to your place on the floor.

Fortescue has the MC put the missal back as soon as that end has been incensed. Some churches give this to the thurifer (p. 100 n. 1).

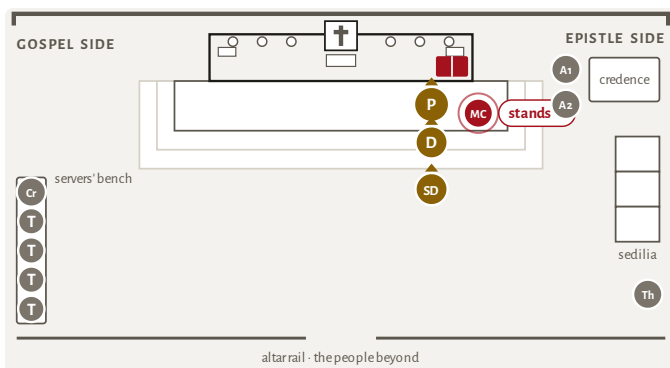

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

5 The deacon incenses the priest

You stand at the Epistle corner of the steps.

1. Bow with the deacon and subdeacon while the deacon incenses the priest.

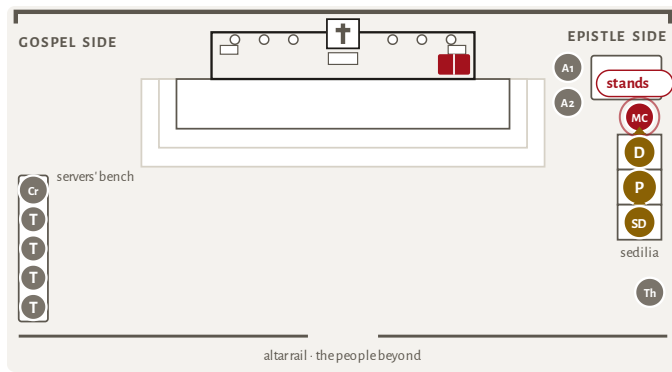

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

6 Introit and Kyrie

You stand at the missal, at the priest's right.

1. Go up and point out the Introit to the priest. The deacon gives the thurible straight to the thurifer: do not take it.
2. Sign yourself with the priest at the beginning of the Introit, and bow toward the tabernacle with him at Glória Patri.
3. Nod to the ministers when the priest says the first Kýrie.

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

7 The Gloria, at the sedilia

You stand by the sedilia, facing down the church.

1. Bow and sign yourself with the ministers while they say the Gloria at the altar.
2. When they have finished, signal the genuflection and go with them to the sedilia. Stand in front of it at the deacon's right, facing the people: you never sit.
3. Nod to the ministers, then turn and bow toward the altar, at Dómine Fili unigénite, Iesu Christe, at qui tollis peccáta mundi, súscipe deprecationem nostram, and at tu solus Altíssimus, Iesu Christe.
4. Signal them to stand at Cum Sancto Spíritu, go back to the altar with them, and signal the genuflection.

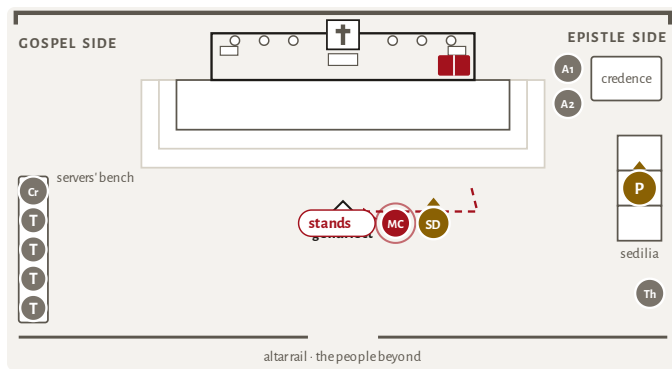

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

8 The collects: the book of the Epistle

You stand on the floor at the subdeacon's right.

1. Go round to the missal with the priest and point out the collect(s). Bow toward the tabernacle with him at Orémus.
2. Once he begins the collect (the last one, if there are more), fetch the book of the Epistle from the credence. Hold it with its opening to your right, your right hand higher than your left.
3. Stand at the subdeacon's right, facing the altar. At the Holy Name in the conclusion bow toward the tabernacle, then hand the book to the subdeacon, bowing before and after.

Not every conclusion has the Holy Name: check before Mass.

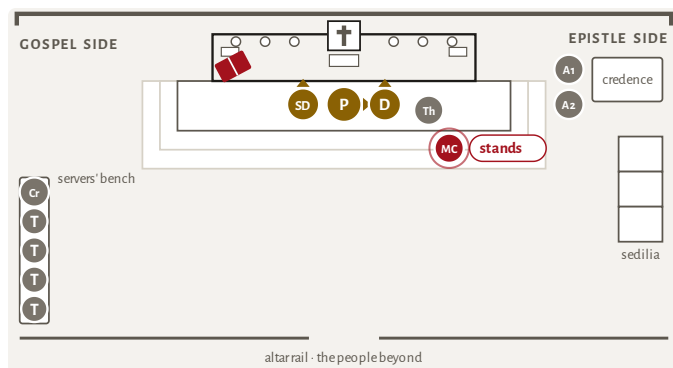

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

9 The subdeacon sings the Epistle

You stand on the floor at the subdeacon's left.

1. Go round behind the subdeacon to the subdeacon's left and go to the middle together. Genuflect, turn in toward the subdeacon, and go to the place where the Epistle is sung.
2. Stand at the subdeacon's left while it is sung, bowing or genuflecting together where the text calls for it.
3. At the end go with the subdeacon to the lowest step, genuflect, and follow to the Epistle side, where the priest blesses the subdeacon. Stand back, out of the way, and take the book back with bows before and after.
4. Put the book away and go back to the missal at the priest's right.

Since 1960 the priest does not read the Epistle himself at a Solemn Mass: he sits and listens, then goes back to the book (Rit. serv. VI.4).

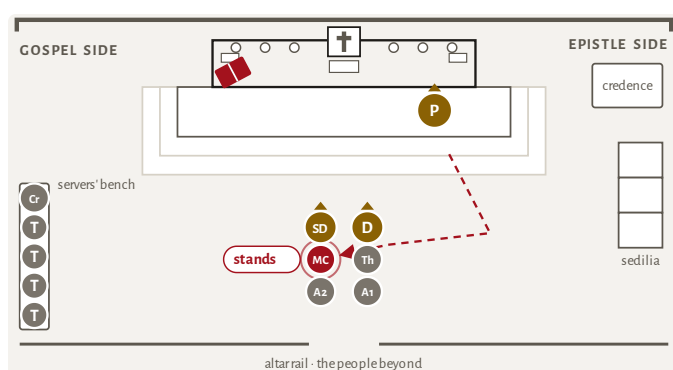

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

10 Incense is put in for the Gospel

You stand on the step at the thurifer's left.

1. After the Gradual and Alleluia (or Tract), go back to the sedilia the short way and fetch the book of the Gospels before the last four and a half lines are sung. When the choir begins them, signal the ministers to stand.
2. Go to the altar with the ministers, signal the genuflection, and hand the book of the Gospels to the deacon, bowing before and after.
3. Take the boat from the thurifer at the Epistle side and assist as at the Introit while incense is put in and blessed.
4. Give the boat back to the thurifer, go down, and wait on the floor while it goes back to the credence. Then lead the thurifer to the middle.

Four and a half lines is a rule of thumb: some Alleluias and Tracts take longer to sing than others.

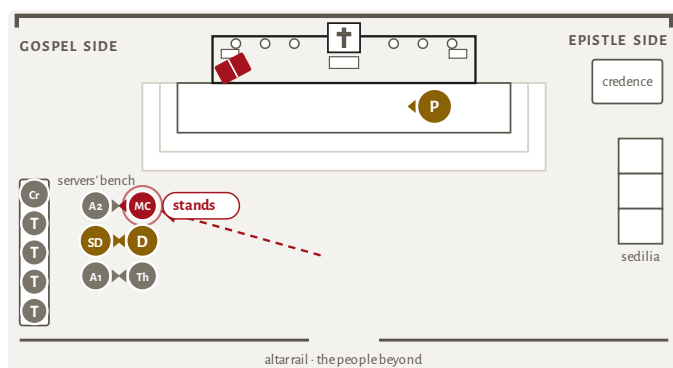

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

11 Line up for the Gospel

You stand in the middle, behind the subdeacon.

1. Stand behind the subdeacon, at the thurifer's left. When the deacon has lined up beside the subdeacon, signal the genuflection.

Fortescue puts the MC at the subdeacon's left, or behind the acolytes (p. 102, fig. 11).

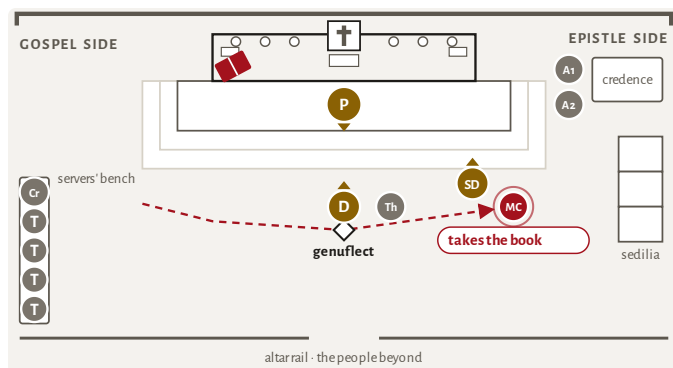

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

12 The deacon sings the Gospel

You stand at the Gospel place, at the deacon's right.

1. After the genuflection follow the acolytes to the place of the Gospel. Face the thurifer; when the deacon and subdeacon arrive, face the second acolyte.
2. At the beginning of the Gospel turn to your right toward the priest and sign yourself at Sequéntia sancti Evangélii. Keep turning and take the thurible from the thurifer in your right hand.
3. Hand it to the deacon, bow with him while he incenses the book, and take it back.
4. Turn to your right and bow to the priest at the Holy Name (if it comes), then give the thurible back to the thurifer. At every Holy Name turn to the priest and bow.
5. Stand at the deacon's right and turn the pages.

Time the turn so you bow to the priest before the Holy Name is sung.

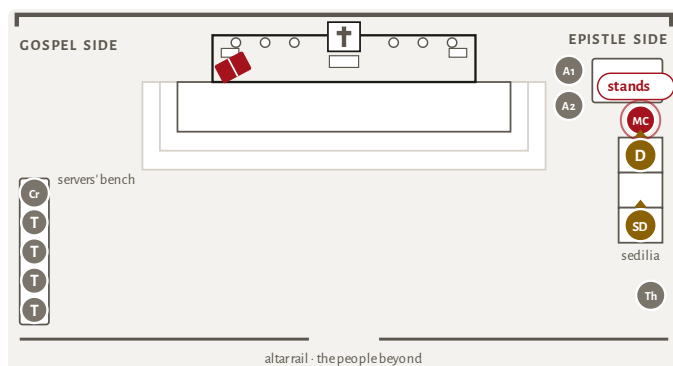

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

13 After the Gospel: the priest is incensed

You stand on the floor at the Epistle side, beside the subdeacon.

1. At the end of the Gospel lead the acolytes to the middle, going behind the deacon and thurifer, and signal the genuflection.
2. Then go to the subdeacon at the Epistle side, take the book of the Gospels, and put it away.

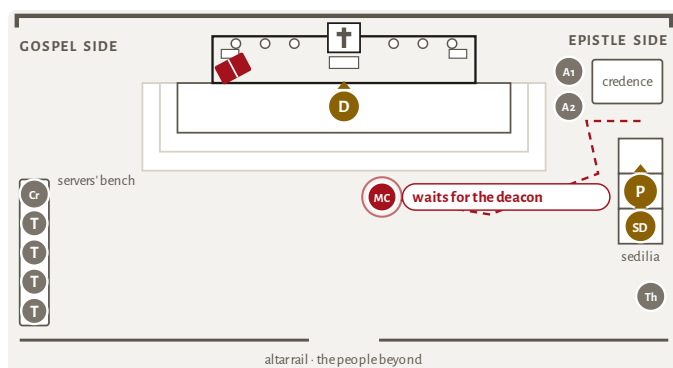

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

14 The sermon

You stand by the sedilia, facing down the church.

1. When the ministers have come back to the foot of the altar and the preacher has taken off the maniple, signal the genuflection and lead the preacher to the pulpit.
2. At the Holy Name during the sermon, bow straight ahead, not toward the tabernacle.
3. At the end signal the ministers to stand and go to the altar. When the maniple is back on, signal the genuflection.

Fortescue lets the MC sit during the sermon, the only time at High Mass (p. 103).

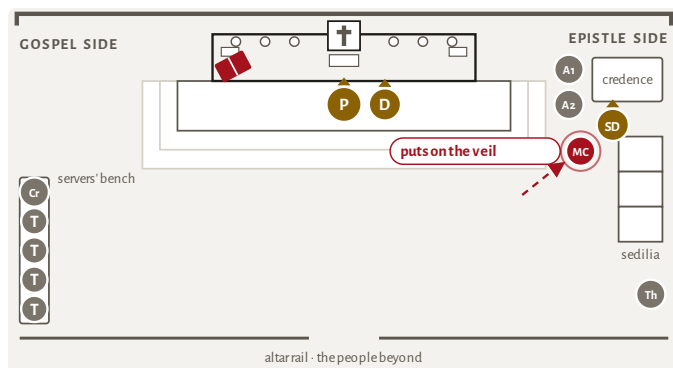

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

15 The Creed: the burse

You stand at the foot of the altar, waiting for the deacon.

1. Bow, genuflect and sign yourself with the ministers while they say the Creed at the altar. Then signal the genuflection and go with them to the sedilia.
2. If the choir reaches Et incarnátus est before they have gone to sit, signal them to kneel on the lowest step; then to stand, genuflect, and go to the sedilia.
3. After Et incarnátus est fetch the burse from the credence. Hold it at eye level, its opening away from you, and hand it to the deacon with bows before and after.
4. Walk at the deacon's right to the foot of the altar, lift his alb as he goes up, and wait where you genuflected. When he comes back, genuflect with him and go back to the sedilia.
5. Signal the ministers to bow at simul adorátur, and to stand at Et vitam ventúri sǎculi. Go to the altar with them, signal the genuflection, and go to your place.

Fortescue: at the sung Et incarnátus est the MC bows to the priest as the sign to uncover, and kneels facing across the sanctuary (p. 103).

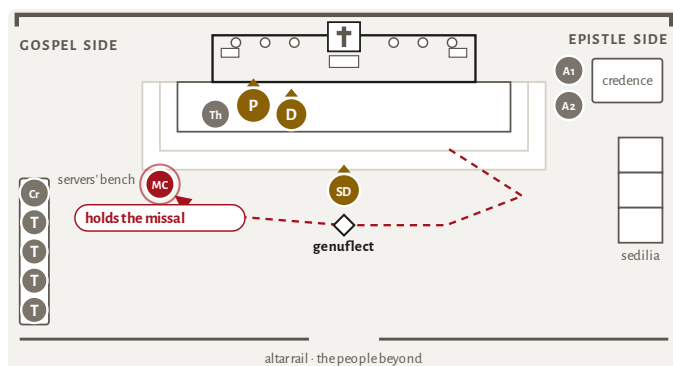

OFFERTORY

16 The Offertory: the humeral veil

You stand at the credence, beside the subdeacon.

1. When the priest has sung Orémus, genuflect with the subdeacon and go together to the credence.
2. Put the humeral veil over the subdeacon's shoulders, hanging a little lower on the right.
3. If there are ciboria on the credence, take them to the altar. Then go back to your place.

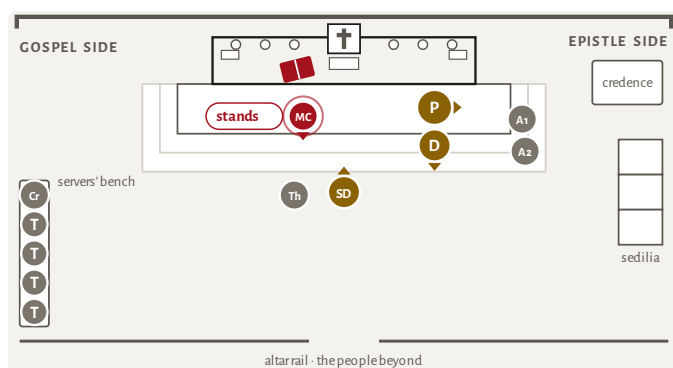

OFFERTORY

17 The offerings and the altar are incensed

You stand on the floor at the Gospel side, holding the missal.

1. When the first acolyte has taken the cruets away and the priest has offered the chalice, take the boat from the thurifer at the Epistle side and assist as at the Introit while incense is put in and blessed.
2. Go down the Epistle side and wait on the floor while the thurifer puts the boat on the credence.
3. With the thurifer, genuflect in the middle behind the subdeacon, and go to the floor at the Gospel side.
4. When the priest begins to incense the Epistle side, take the missal off the altar (at once, if there are relics on the altar). When he comes back to incense the Epistle side again, put it back in its Canon place and stay there. Find the Secret.

Fortescue: the MC waits at the Epistle side, crosses when the priest comes to incense that side, takes the missal away when he reaches its place, and puts it back when that end has been incensed (p. 104).

OFFERTORY

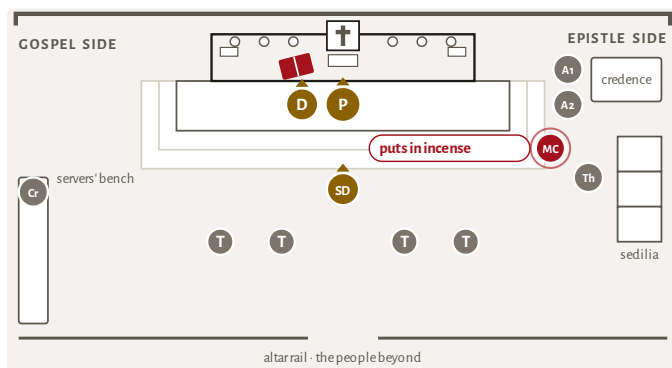

18 The Lavabo: the deacon and MC are incensed

You stand at the missal, at the priest's left.

1. At Oráte, fratres answer the Suscípiat and point out the Secret. Watch for the thurifer coming to incense you: turn, and bow before and after.
2. At the end of the Secret turn to the Preface. At the words about the Angels and Archangels (atque or cumque), bow to the deacon and subdeacon as their sign to come up for the Sanctus.
3. Then leave by your left, the long way round, to your place.

PRIEST Oráte, fratres: ut meum ...

YOU Suscípiat Dóminus sacrificium de mánibus tuis ad laudem et glóriam nóminis sui, ad utilitátem quoque nostram, totiúsque Ecclésiæ suæ sanctæ.

SANCTUS AND CANON

19 Incense for the elevation

You stand at the Epistle corner of the steps.

1. When the deacon steps forward again after the Meménto of the living, turn to the thurifer coming toward you and take the boat.
2. Stir the coals, put incense in (no blessing is given), and give the boat back.

Fortescue: the MC or the thurifer puts the incense in, at Qui pridie (p. 104).

SANCTUS AND CANON

20 The Consecration

You kneel on the floor at the Epistle side.

1. Kneel on the floor at the Epistle side when the deacon kneels.
2. After the elevation of the chalice, stand when the priest rises from his last genuflection.

Fortescue has the MC kneel beside the thurifer, and in many churches incense at the elevations instead of the thurifer (p. 104 n. 4).

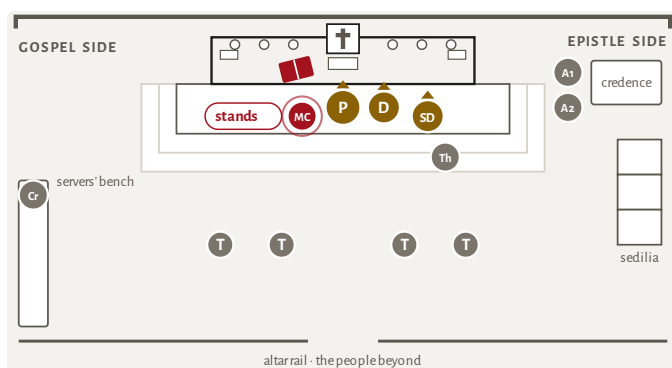

SANCTUS AND CANON

21 The end of the Canon

You stand at the missal, at the priest's left.

1. At Nobis quoque peccatōribus go to the middle behind the subdeacon, genuflect, and wait at the steps on the Gospel side.
2. When the deacon genuflects, genuflect with him and go up to the priest's left, by the missal.
3. Turn the page just before each genuflection, and support the priest's elbow as he genuflects when the pall is taken off the chalice and put back.

Fortescue has the MC come to the missal at Per quem hæc ómnia (p. 105).

COMMUNION

22 The Pater noster: the humeral veil

You stand at the missal, at the priest's left.

1. At et dimitte nobis bow to the subdeacon and deacon as their sign to go up to the Epistle side, and make sure the humeral veil is taken from the subdeacon.
2. At Pax Dómini bow to the subdeacon, genuflect, go down the Gospel side, genuflect as you cross the middle, and go to your place.
3. When the deacon has come down and given the kiss of peace to the subdeacon, signal all to kneel.

Fortescue: when the subdeacon has given the pax to the choir, the MC receives it from him in the middle and gives it to the thurifer, or to the first acolyte (p. 105; Rit. serv. X.8).

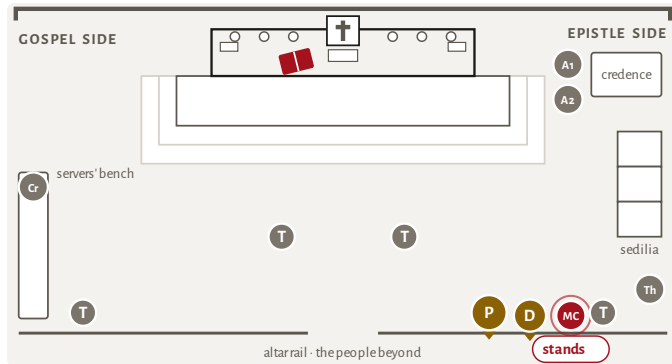

COMMUNION

23 The servers' Communion

You kneel on the edge of the footpace.

1. When the priest has drunk the Precious Blood, signal all to rise. The thurifer leads the servers into a line at the foot of the altar: thurifer, first acolyte, second acolyte, crucifer, and you at the Epistle end.
2. When they are in line, signal the genuflection, then kneel.
3. When the subdeacon and deacon have received Communion, signal all to rise, and go up at once and kneel on the footpace.
4. After your Communion stay on the footpace and signal the others to genuflect and go back to their places.

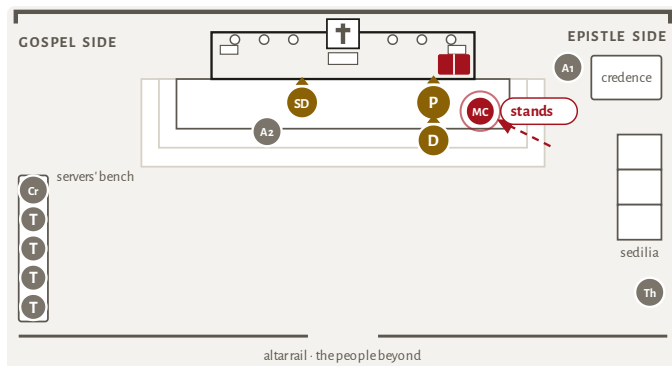

COMMUNION

24 Communion of the people

You stand at the deacon's right at the rail.

1. Lead the priest down to give Communion to the people, and stand at the deacon's right while it is given.
2. When you come back to the sanctuary, kneel at once at your place. When the tabernacle is locked, signal all to rise, and make sure the acolytes do their part from here.

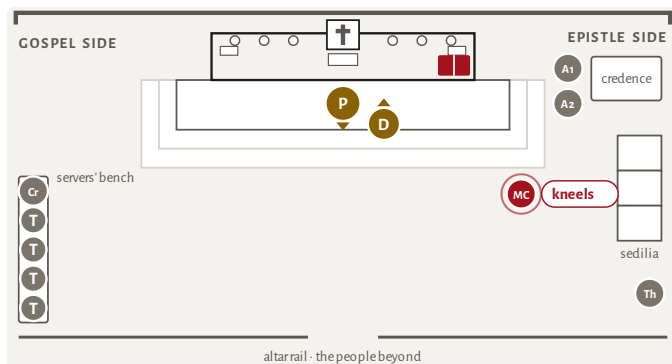

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

25 The missal and the chalice veil

You stand at the missal, at the priest's right.

1. When the deacon crosses the middle with the missal, follow (after his genuflection) to the Epistle side.
2. Open the book if needed and point out the Communion antiphon. After Dóminus vobiscum bow toward the tabernacle with the priest at Orémus, and point out the Postcommunion.
3. Close the book after the last Postcommunion and its conclusion.

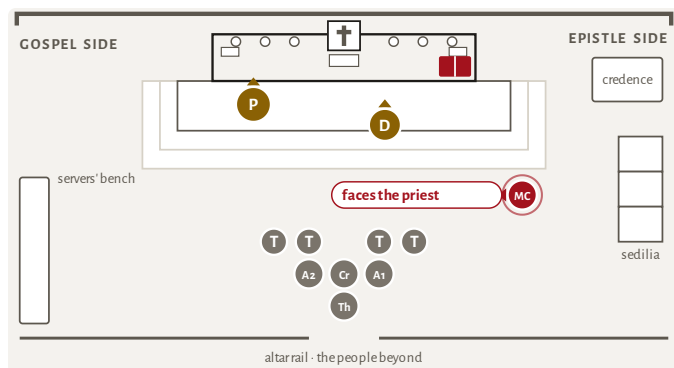

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

26 Ite, missa est and the blessing

You kneel on the floor at the Epistle side.

1. After the deacon sings Ite, missa est, signal all to kneel for the blessing, and kneel at the Epistle side.
2. Signal all to rise for the Last Gospel.

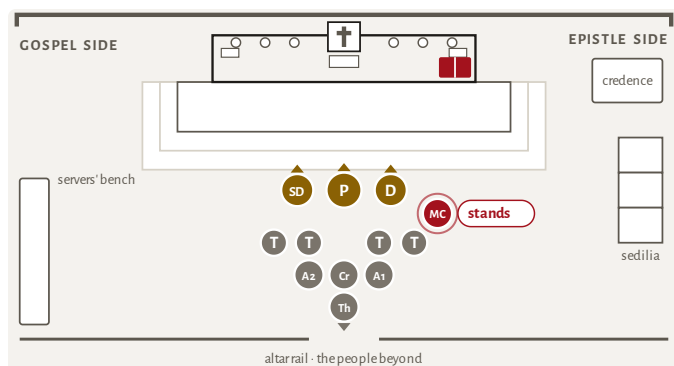

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

27 The Last Gospel: line up to leave

You stand on the floor at the Epistle side.

1. Face the priest, and genuflect with him at Et Verbum caro factum est. Make sure the servers move into place after signing themselves.
2. When the Last Gospel ends, fetch the birettas from the sedilia. Give the priest's and the deacon's to the deacon, and the subdeacon's to the subdeacon.

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

28 Back to the sacristy

You stand behind the deacon, to his right.

1. Signal all to genuflect, then lead the ministers out.
2. In the sacristy signal all to bow to the cross; when the ministers have bowed to one another, signal all to bow to the priest. Kneel for the blessing.

Practice differs a little from church to church: where your priest or MC does it differently, do it that way. From Serving the Latin Mass, <https://mikeygabmiller.github.io/Serving/>, where every instruction carries its source.
