triangle: the way a figure faces

Mass with a deacon and subdeacon. The servers are the same as at a sung Mass, but much of what the MC and thurifer hand to the priest goes through the deacon. FSSP Omaha's Solemn Mass sheets have no servers' Confiteor before Communion.

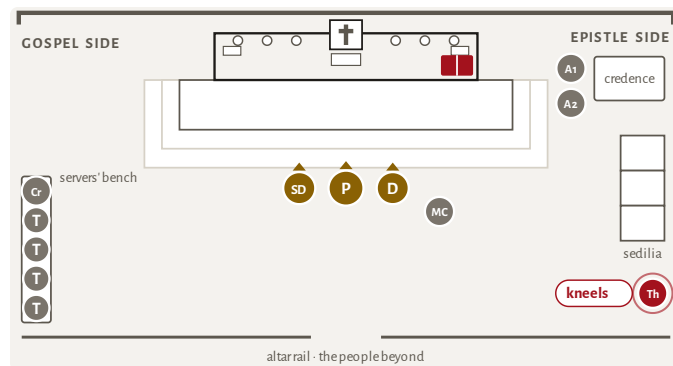

BEFORE MASS

1 The procession arrives

You stand at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. Lead the procession, the thurible in your left hand.
2. Genuflect at the foot of the altar, then put the thurible on its stand and go to your place.

Fortescue allows the thurifer to lead with joined hands and fetch the thurible during the Confiteor (p. 91).

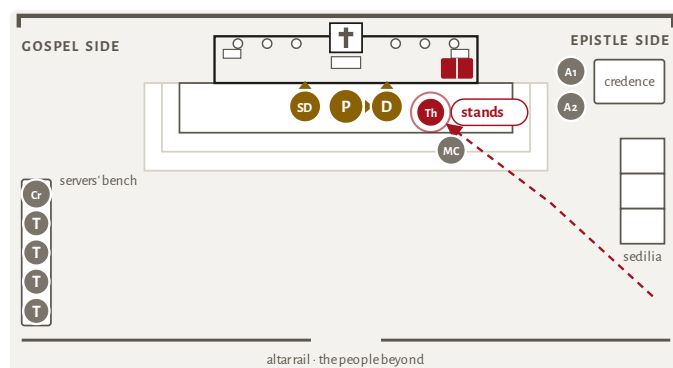

PRAYERS AT THE FOOT OF THE ALTAR

2 The prayers at the foot of the altar

You kneel at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. Kneel at your place.
2. At Deus, tu convérsus rise, fetch the thurible and boat, and wait at the door ready.

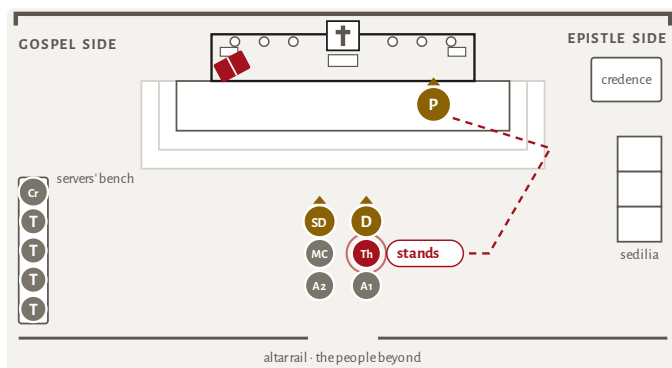

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

3 Incense is put in for the altar

You stand on the footpace at the deacon's right, facing the priest.

1. When the priest, deacon and subdeacon go up and the MC comes round, come to the Epistle side with the thurible in your left hand and the boat in your right.
2. Hand the boat to the MC as the MC comes to your left, bow, and go up together.
3. Open the thurible only on the footpace, and hold it up for the priest. Keep it open until he has blessed the incense.
4. Close it, pass it to the deacon, and take the boat from the MC.

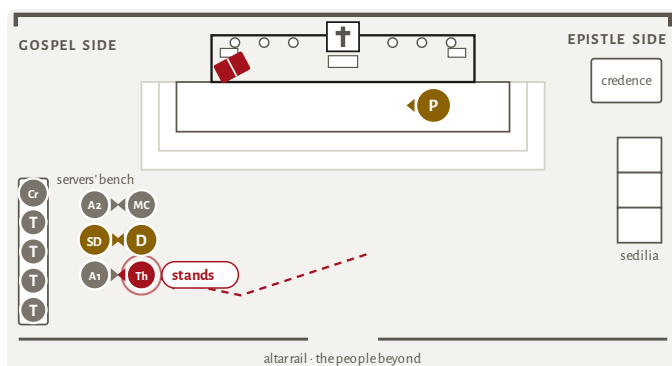

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

8 Line up for the Gospel

You stand in the middle, behind the deacon.

1. Stand at the MC's right, behind the deacon. Do not swing the thurible.
2. Genuflect with all at the MC's signal.

Fortescue has the thurifer in front, between the acolytes, with the deacon and subdeacon in front of them (p. 96, fig. 11).

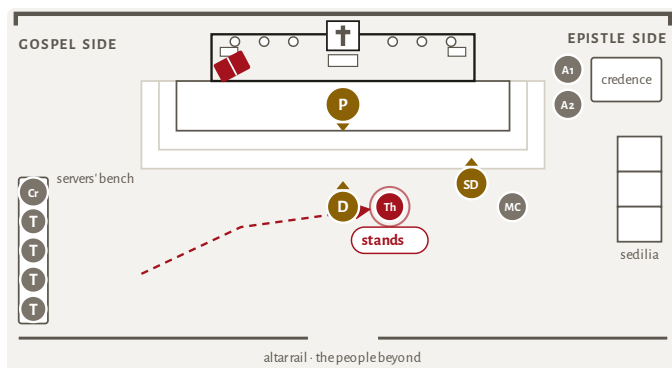

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

9 The deacon sings the Gospel

You stand at the Gospel place, at the deacon's left.

1. After the genuflection follow the acolytes to the place of the Gospel. Face the MC; when the deacon and subdeacon arrive, face the first acolyte.
2. When the MC has made the sign of the cross, give the MC the thurible with your right hand. Bow low with the deacon and MC while the book is incensed.
3. Take the thurible back after the MC bows for the Holy Name, move it to your left hand, away from the deacon, and do not swing it.

Fortescue puts the thurifer at the deacon's left (p. 92, fig. 12), as here.

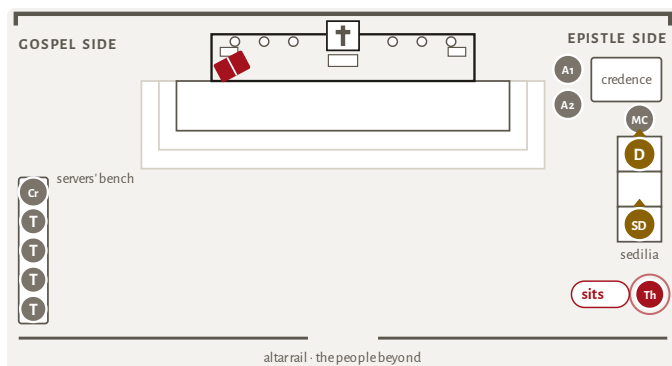

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

10 After the Gospel: the priest is incensed

You stand at the foot, at the deacon's right.

1. When the subdeacon has gone, turn by your right toward the priest and walk to the middle at the foot, the deacon at your left. Give the deacon the thurible.
2. When the priest has kissed the book and is ready, bow low with the deacon, who incenses the priest with three double swings. Bow again and take the thurible back.
3. At once take the boat from the credence, put the thurible and boat away, and go to your place for the sermon.

Since 1960 this incensing is kept only at a Solemn Mass (Rit. serv. VI.5 and VI.8). Fortescue has the priest incensed where he stood for the Gospel, at the Epistle side, the thurifer at the deacon's right (p. 92).

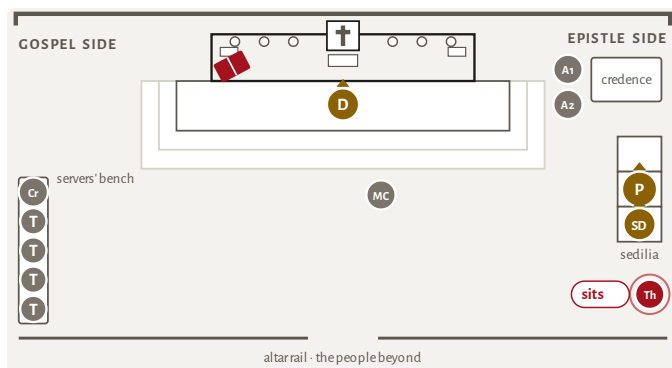

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

11 The sermon

You sit at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. Sit at your place during the sermon.

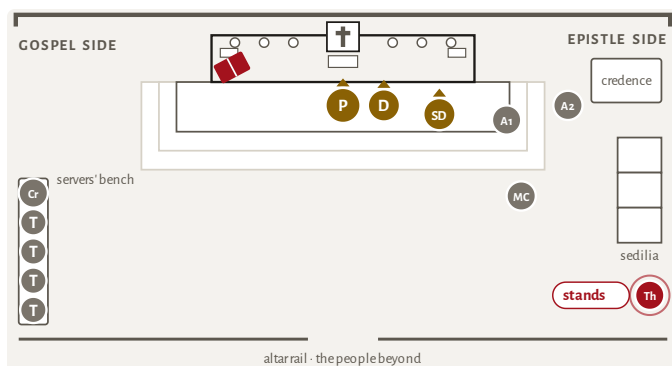

MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

12 The Creed: the burse

You sit at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. After the priest intones Credo in unum Deum, go out and light a fresh coal for the rest of Mass, then come back to your place.

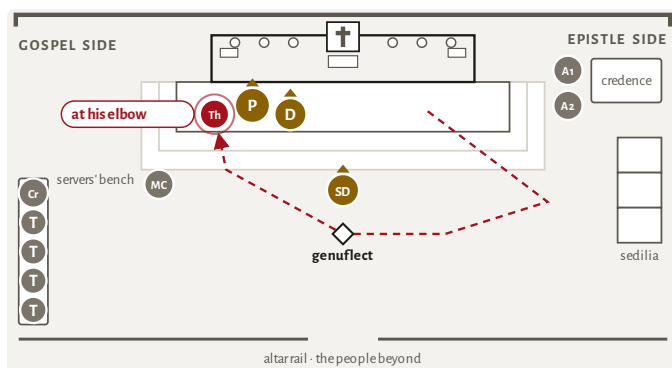

OFFERTORY

13 The cruets

You stand at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. When the first acolyte sets the cruets on the altar, fetch the thurible and boat and wait at the door.

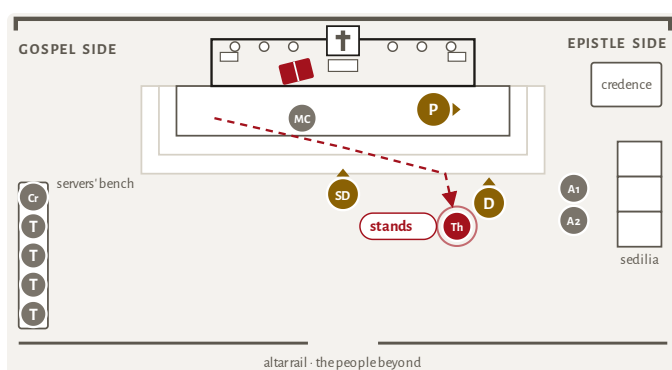

OFFERTORY

14 The offerings and the altar are incensed

You stand at the priest's left, at his elbow.

1. When the first acolyte has put the cruets back, come to the Epistle side. Hand the boat to the MC, bow, go up together, and hold the thurible open while incense is put in and blessed.
2. Close it, pass it to the deacon, and take the boat from the MC. Turn by your left, go down, and leave the boat on the credence.
3. Follow the MC to the middle, behind the subdeacon, and genuflect together. Then go straight up to the priest's left and support his elbow while he incenses the altar.

Fortescue has the thurifer stand on the floor at the Epistle side while the altar is incensed (p. 92).

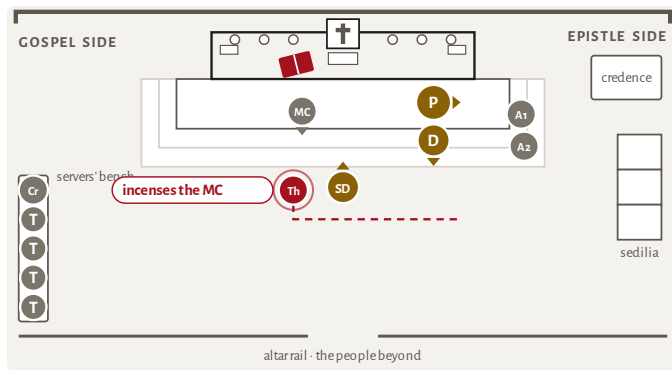

OFFERTORY

15 The priest and the subdeacon are incensed

You stand on the floor at the deacon's left, a little behind.

1. After the last genuflection in the middle, go down the front steps on the Epistle side and stand at the deacon's left, a little behind. Bow low with the deacon while he incenses the priest.
2. Lead the deacon to the subdeacon's right, where the deacon incenses the subdeacon. Then take the thurible from the deacon.

If there are clergy in choir, lead the deacon to them first, staying at his left while he incenses them (FSSP Omaha; Fortescue p. 93).

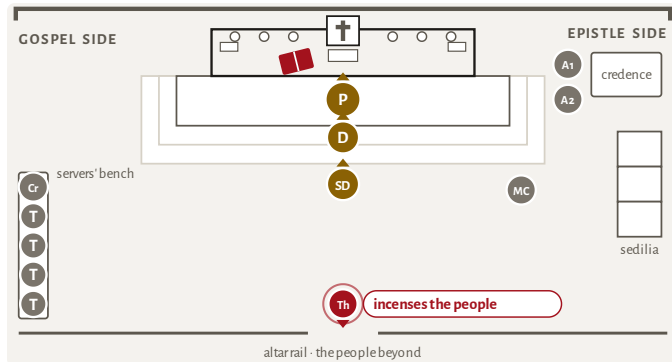

OFFERTORY

16 The Lavabo: the deacon and MC are incensed

You stand on the floor below the MC.

1. Incense the deacon with two double swings, bowing before and after.
2. Go round behind the subdeacon and incense the MC: one swing, or one double swing if the MC is a cleric. If the MC is busy at the missal, wait; clink the chains gently to remind the MC.

Fortescue gives the MC and each server one double swing (p. 93).

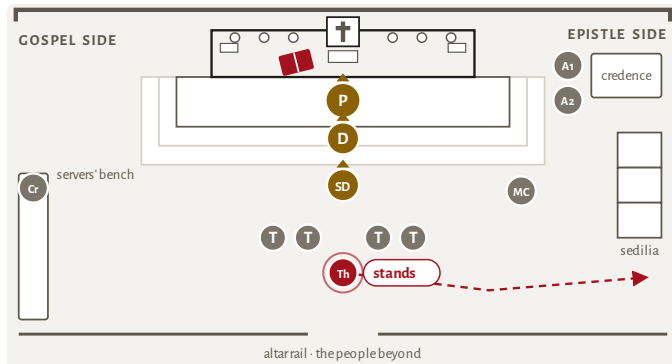

OFFERTORY

17 The servers and people are incensed

You stand at the entrance of the sanctuary, facing the people.

1. Incense the acolytes and crucifer together (one double swing to the middle, one to the left, one to the right), then the torchbearers the same way.
2. Genuflect before leaving the sanctuary, turn by your right, and incense the people: one double swing down the middle, one left, one right.
3. Genuflect whenever you cross the middle, and bow before and after each incensing.
4. Then stand in the middle of the sanctuary facing the altar until the priest sings Per ómnia sæcula sæculórum before the Preface.

OFFERTORY

18 At the Preface, out for the torches

You stand in the middle, behind the torchbearers.

1. When the priest sings Per ómnia sæcula sæculórum, go to the right side of the torchbearers, signal them, and lead them in procession to the sacristy.

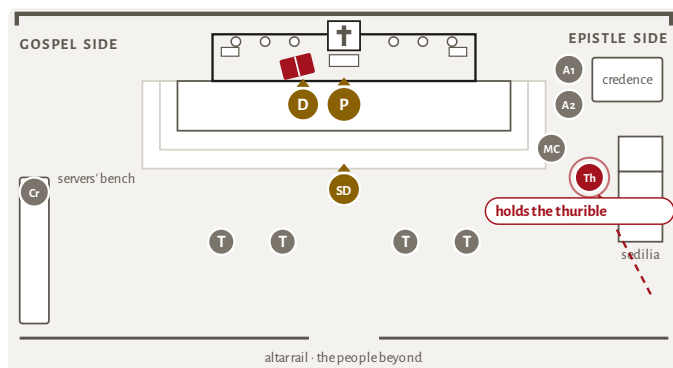

SANCTUS AND CANON

19 The Sanctus: the torches come in

You stand at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. When the Sanctus begins, lead the torchbearers back in to their places, then go to your place.

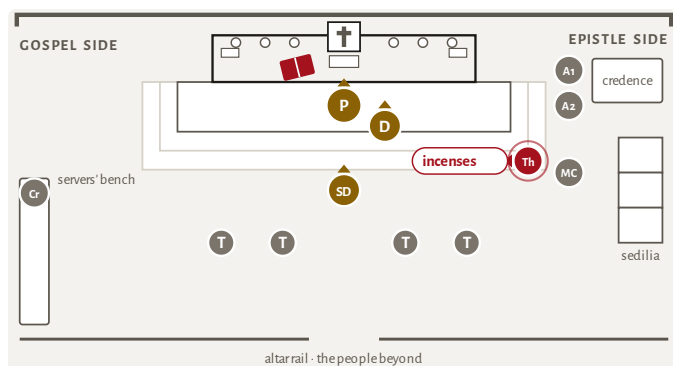

SANCTUS AND CANON

20 Incense for the elevation

You stand beside the MC at the Epistle side.

1. When the deacon steps forward on the footpace after the Meménto of the living, fetch the thurible and boat.
2. Hand the boat to the MC and hold the thurible open while the MC puts incense in.
3. Go to the Epistle side, put the boat on the credence, and stand on the floor at the step, facing the Gospel side.

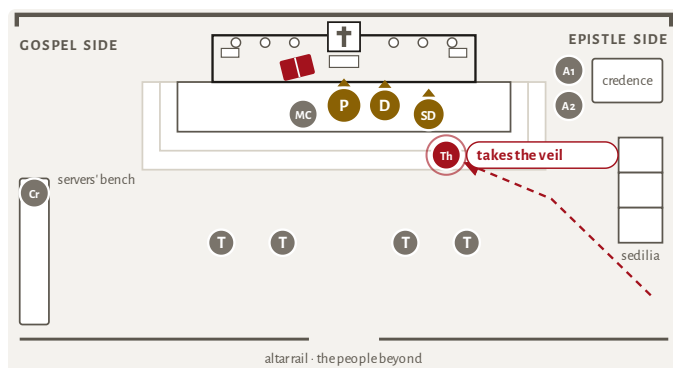

SANCTUS AND CANON

21 The Consecration

You kneel on the lowest step at the Epistle side, facing across.

1. Kneel on the first step when the deacon kneels.
2. Incense the Host with three double swings as it is raised, and the chalice the same way, bowing before and after.
3. Stand with the MC afterwards, take the thurible and boat back to the sacristy, and go to your place.

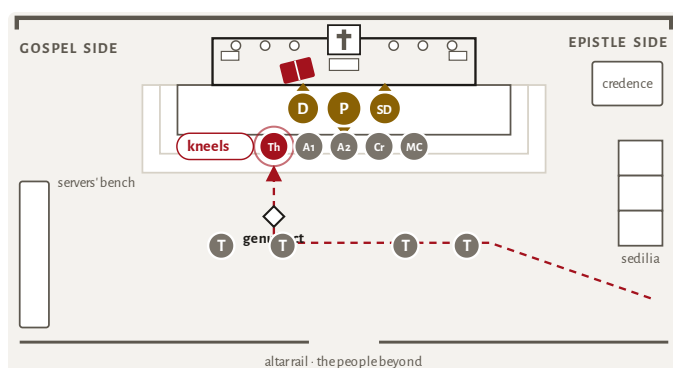

COMMUNION

22 The Pater noster: the humeral veil

You stand on the step behind the subdeacon.

1. At et dimítte nobis in the Pater noster, when the subdeacon has gone up, take the humeral veil from the subdeacon's shoulders.
2. Fold it, put it on the credence, and go back to your place.

Who takes the veil varies. FSSP Omaha's MC sheet gives it to the thurifer. Fortescue gives it to the first acolyte, or to the thurifer when the acolytes hold the torches (pp. 93–94, 97). The sheet maker has a switch for it.

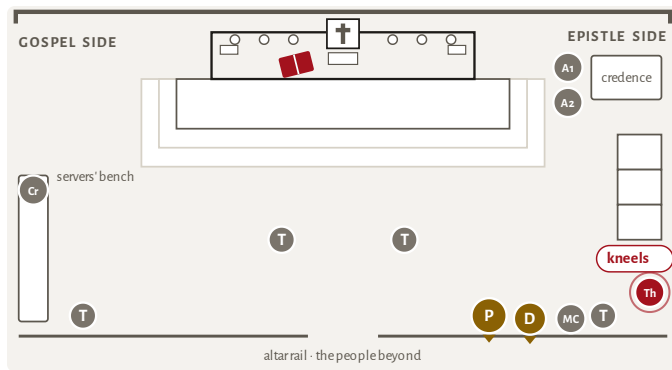

COMMUNION

23 The servers' Communion

You kneel on the edge of the footpace.

1. When the MC signals all to rise, take the Communion paten from the credence and lead the first acolyte, second acolyte and crucifer to the middle. Go behind the MC to your place at the Gospel end of the line.
2. Genuflect, then kneel, at the MC's signals.
3. When the subdeacon and deacon have received, rise at the MC's signal and go up at once to kneel on the footpace.
4. After Communion rise, come down turning toward the middle, genuflect, and go back to your place and kneel.

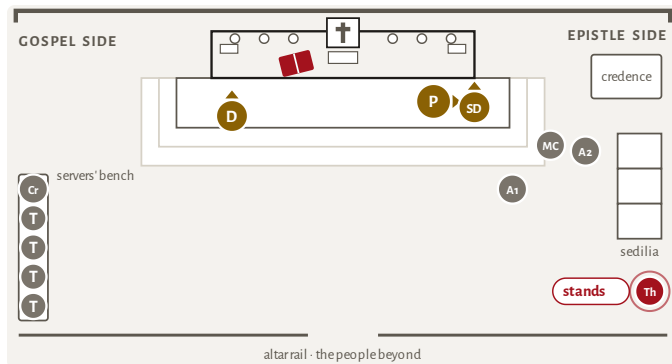

COMMUNION

24 Communion of the people

You kneel at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. If a second priest gives Communion, lead him down the Epistle side to the people with a paten. When he has finished, give him the paten, come back up the middle, genuflect, and kneel at your place.

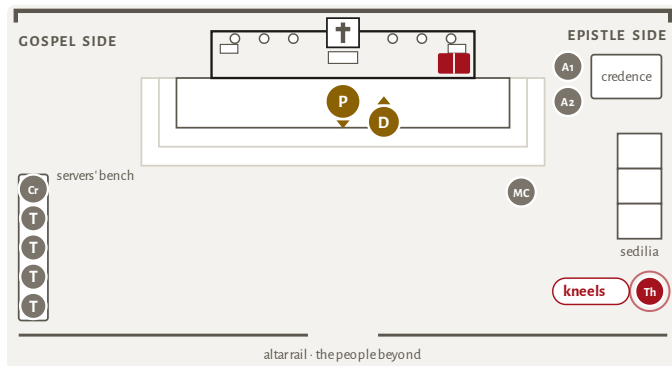

COMMUNION

25 The ablutions

You stand at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. When the tabernacle is closed, signal the torchbearers to rise, lead them out to put the torches away, and lead them back to their places.

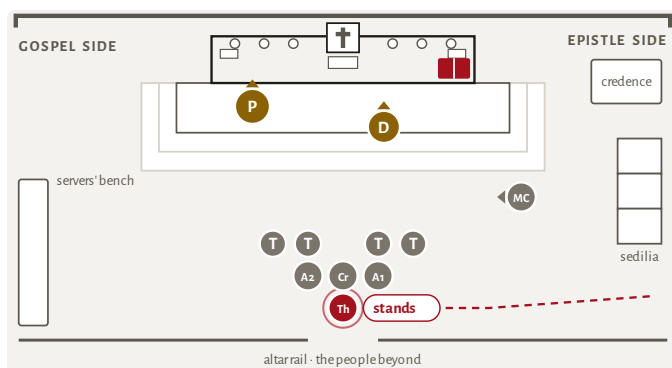

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

26 Ite, missa est and the blessing

You kneel at the thurifer's place, by the way to the sacristy.

1. Kneel for the blessing where you are.

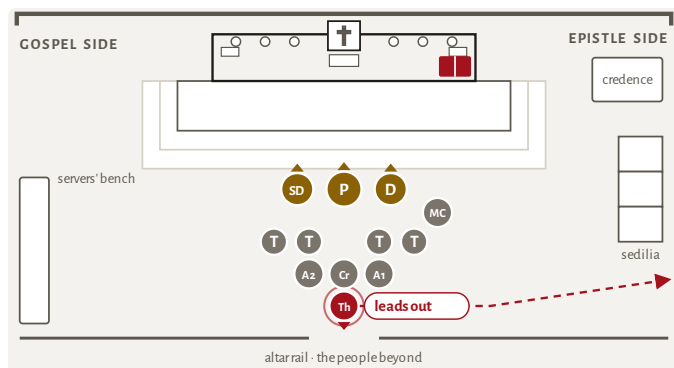

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

27 The Last Gospel: line up to leave

You stand in the middle, behind the acolytes.

1. After signing yourself at the start of the Last Gospel, go to your place behind the acolytes, facing the altar.
2. Genuflect at Et Verbum caro factum est, and again at the MC's signal.

AFTER COMMUNION TO THE END

28 Back to the sacristy

You stand in the middle, behind the acolytes.

1. Turn round and lead the procession out.
2. In the sacristy bow to the cross with the ministers and kneel for the blessing. Then put the thurible away, refill the boat, and clear up after the coals.

Practice differs a little from church to church: where your priest or MC does it differently, do it that way. From Serving the Latin Mass, <https://mikeygabmiller.github.io/Serving/>, where every instruction carries its source.
